I put my head on a guillotine, just to hear you scream
Watch my head spin, you can make me do
Anything, anything, Any old thing.

Ying Yang, you're my quicksand
You're so much more than, anything you would Understand, understand, Agh

I have felt the cold in bones,
I just needed someone to call my own
For such, such a long, long time.
She bring it on.

Chorus:

Head spin, it feels so heavenly,
Head spin, un real, spinning round
Head spin, it feels Heavenly.

I, Don't own a race car, I play a bad guitar
I won't ever get far, if that's not enough
I will fall apart, fall apart, falling apart.

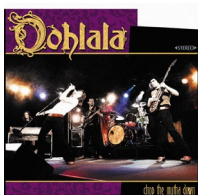

Or could it be, you were always near
And never no need, to lose my mind
Yeah, so silly me, silly me, silly old me

There's one thing, I need to know
Cause I can't turn back, from where I came from
In such, a long, long time.
She bring it on.

Chorus:

Don't Let - The feeling,
Can't you see I'm hanging on
There is no-one else - in my world,
Who could do for me Like no-one else before.
No one like you.....

Solo:

I've got dizzy spells; I'll book a motel
Or better check my emails, cause I've got something
To show and tell, show and tell you.

I have felt the cold in bones, I just needed someone to call my own
For such, such a long, long time, time.

Chorus: x2

Chorus - loose version outré.
