Verse:

Dear friend I've grown tired of chasing make believe
I had dreams and I wonder why...they bring no luck to me
And you might find me, Searching all around
For the one who, Took my love.

Long Lost lover of Mine, Tell me where you've been
I've walked the same old track and many a trodden track I've seen
And you might find me, Searching all around
For the one who took my love.

Bridge:

I can walk for miles on end
Yearning till the very end
For my love, It's you that I need
Baby where does misery lead?

Verse:

I seen wilderness,
Crossed rivers deep & wide
Where the lights burn low
On the other side.

Bridge:

I can walk for miles on end
Yearning till the very end
For my love, It's you that I need
Baby where does misery lead??
